WORKING WITH PARTNERS

- UNHCR works in close coordination with governments, civil society, UN agencies, regional bodies, and persons of concern. The agency also works closely with the United Nations Development Group in Latin America and the Caribbean, alongside UN Resident Coordinators, to ensure UN coordination on protection issues in the region.
- UNHCR leads the Protection Group at national level in Tegucigalpa and San Pedro Sula with the participation of NGOs and UN agencies, in order to strengthen technical capacity in protection, joint risk analysis and exchange of information as well as regional and global visibility to Honduras's protection and human rights crisis. UNHCR has participated in the development of the new UNDAF 2017-2021 and has given visibility to internal displacement by violence as well as to the protection needs of Honduran returnees.
- UNHCR's partners in Honduras include Casa Alianza, ERIC, NRC, CIPRODEH, Save the Children, World Vision, Scalabrinian Sisters, National Migration Institute, External Relations Secretary, Human Rights, Justice, Govern and Decentralization Secretary and the National Commissioner for Human Rights-CONADEH, DINAF (Directorate for Children, Youth and Families), Trocaire, and other UN Agencies.
